Faint Indentations

The image displays a complex, repeating pattern of stylized, handwritten-style numbers. The most prominent numbers are '1930' and '1933', which are rendered in a light beige or cream color against a dark, almost black, background. These numbers are arranged in a staggered, non-linear fashion, creating a sense of depth and movement. Interspersed among these larger numbers are smaller, darker, and more abstract shapes that resemble the same numbers but in a more fluid, cursive form. The overall effect is one of a dense, organic, and somewhat chaotic texture, reminiscent of a hand-drawn collage or a heavily processed photograph of a wall covered in graffiti.

I had always been oblivious, before,
To the people coming and going around us.
But now, I feel rather lost.
I've been abandoned in a hallway
Full of memories.
Soon, the new students
Will throng to lockers,
Laughing
They'll even use your locker.
But they won't care.
They won't feel
The numbness I sense
When I am among them here,
Without you.
I'll see likenesses of us scattered
Throughout the classes and halls.
The new couples will beckon for each other,
As I often beckoned you.
They'll be content, they're sure to be.
For they'll know not of the heart-aches
I'm to experience
During this long and stifling year.
Their days are to be short and happily filled
With friends:
Mine are not.
To be happy, I need
The strength and affection that I seem
To have lost.
You're gone.
And with you, you took a part of me.
I gave it willingly.
But what did you leave for me?

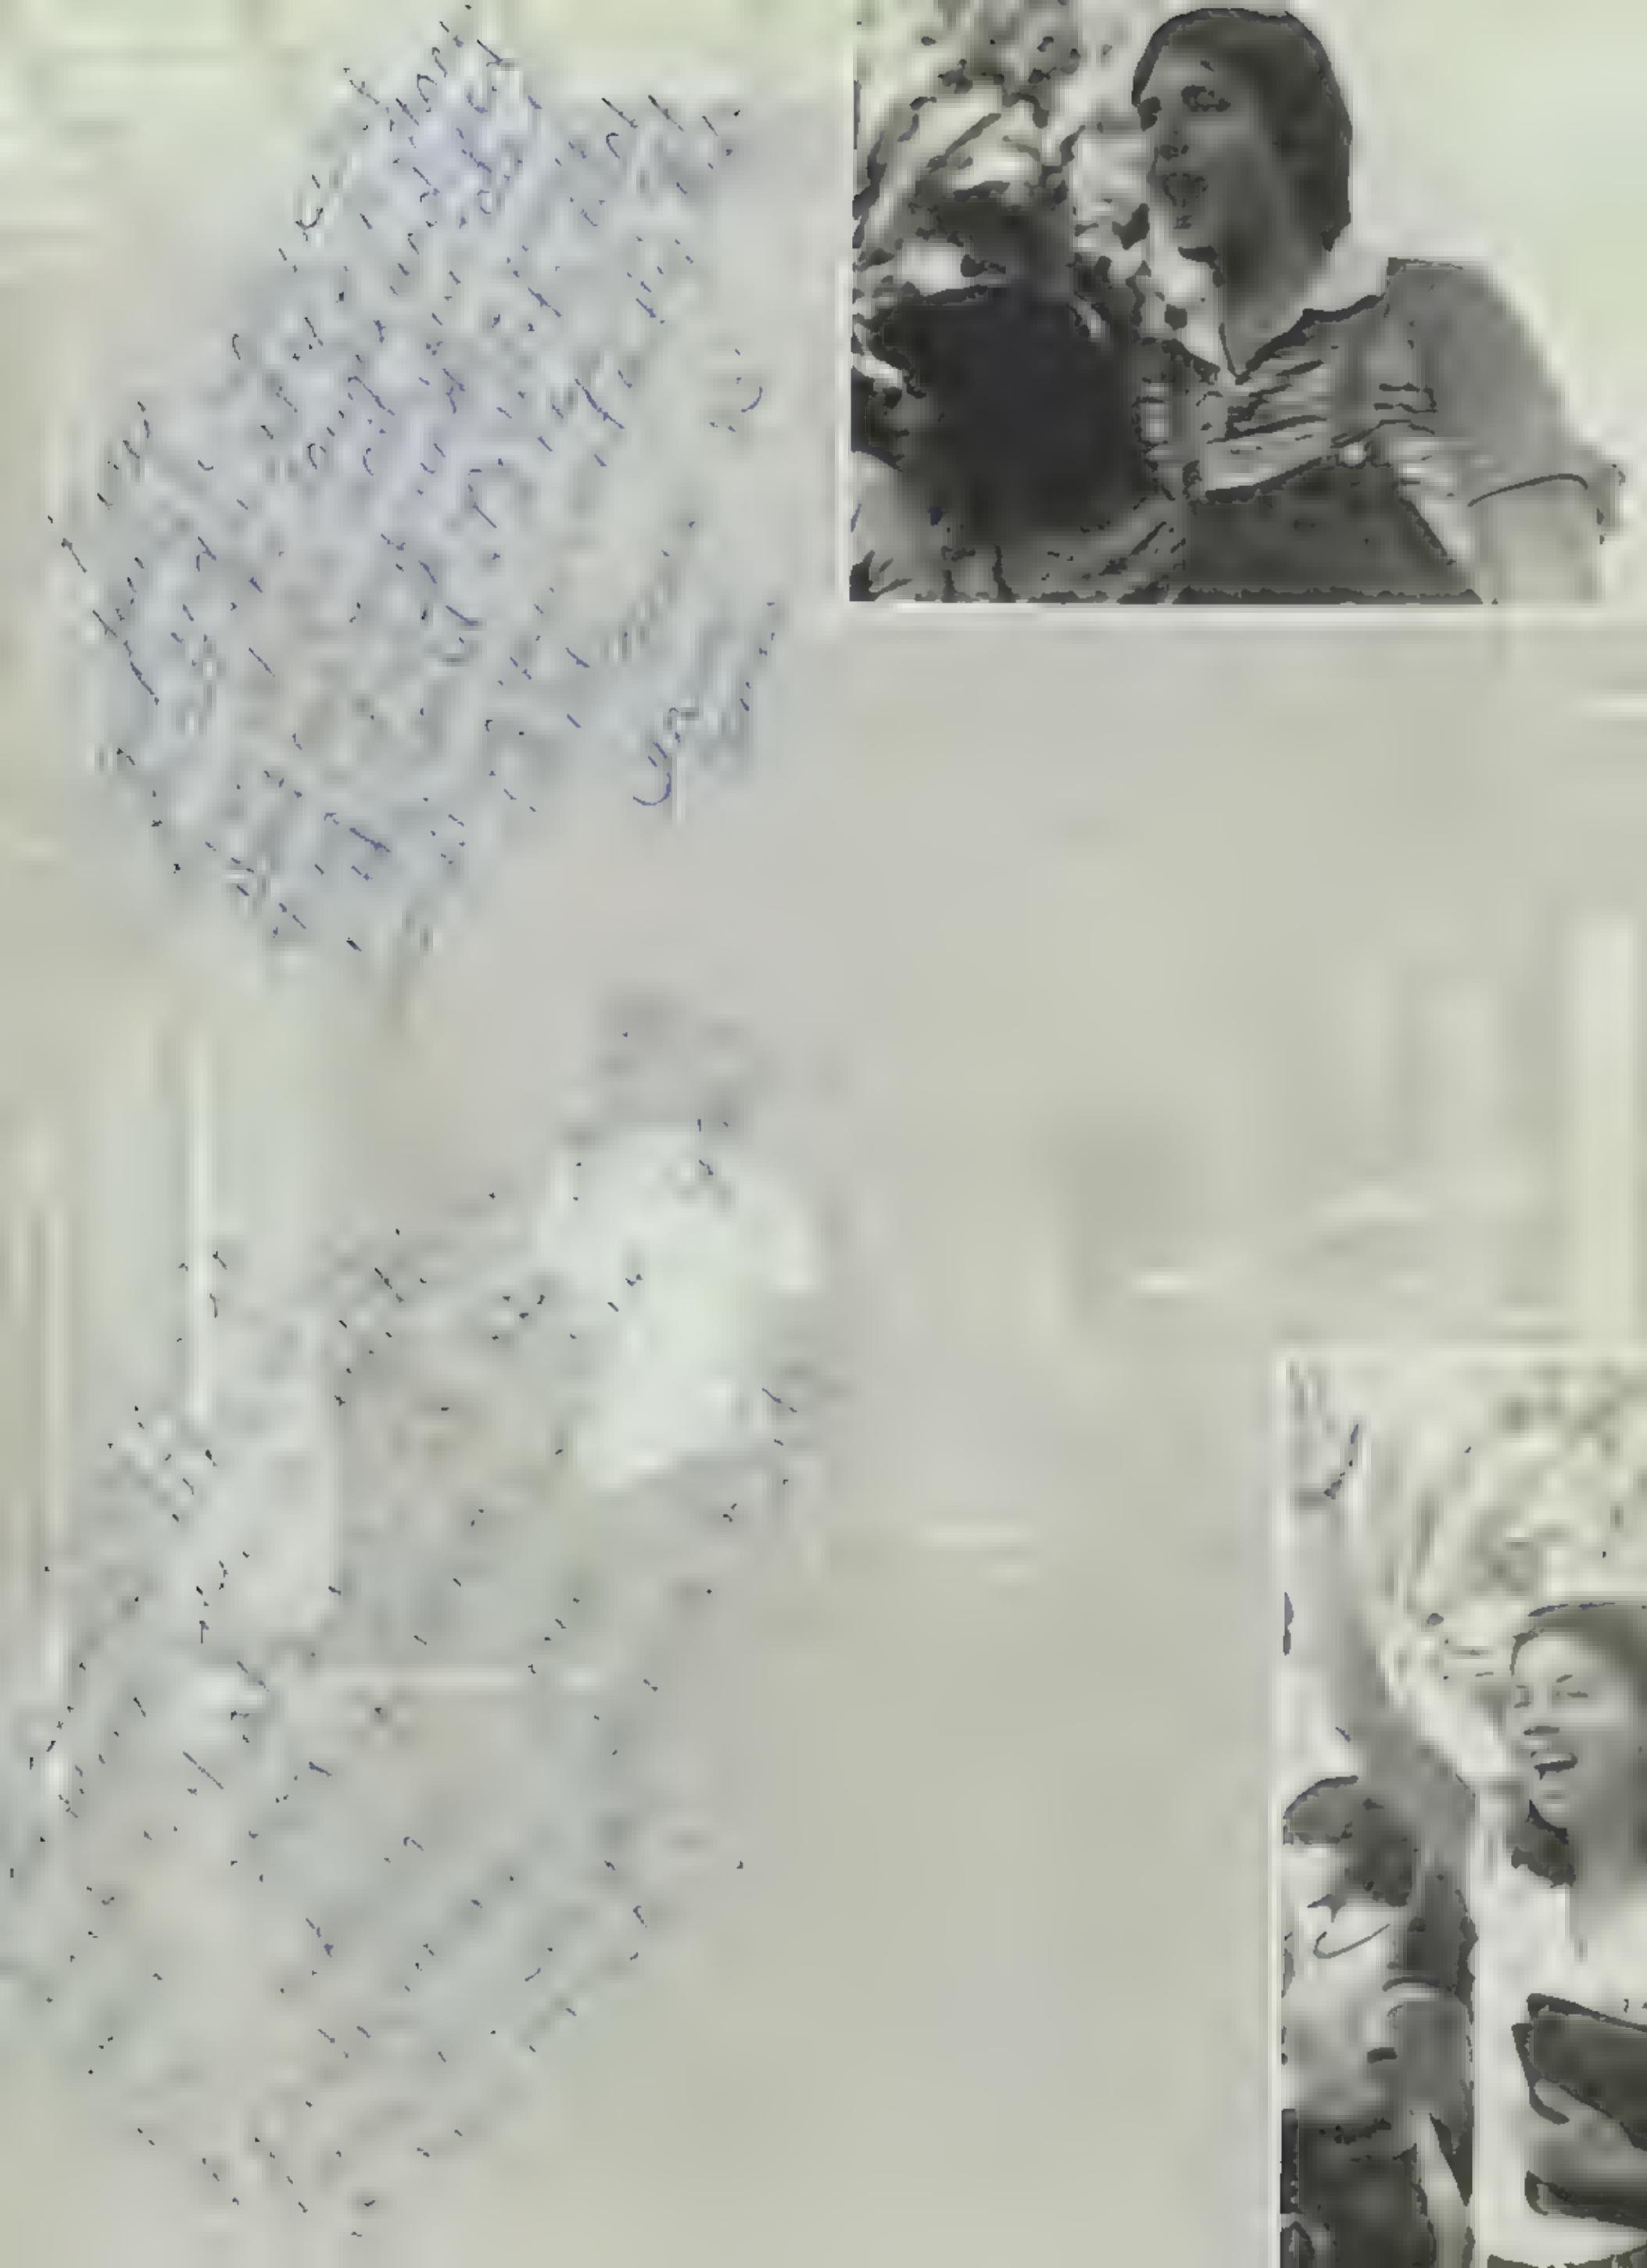

Your initials
Faint indentations
on a crumbling
post

A hallway full of

The night of homecoming, October 26, was a big one for all the candidates vying for Homecoming King or Queen. After a solid week of contest and games, the candidates were now anxiously awaiting the outcome of the student body votes.

On these pages, their memories are captured as they walk toward the platforms, hearing the announcer tell of each one's school involvement in the past four years.

The crowd was silent as everyone anxiously listened for the announcer. "The Yuma High Homecoming Queen and King for 1980... Maddy Martin and Rick Garcia."

When asked of her reaction to the announcement, Maddy said, "I was in no way expecting to get it, so after they said my name, I was on cloud nine. Being Homecoming Queen is something I've always dreamed of." On October 26, Maddy Martin's dream became reality.

Memories Sail On.

This year student council went Swedish to come up with our homecoming theme "Segla Pa" which in English means "Sail On".

Laura Castro, YHS social manager, had the job of planning the activities for the week, including homecoming night. "Sail On" they did as council organized the events to produce a memorable homecoming for all the students. Said Laura, "There were many hardships during the preparation of homecoming, but with council's support everything turned out successfully."

Theme Is 'Segla Pa'

"Segla Pa", a Swedish term for "Sail On", carried this year's homecoming messages as colorful floats paraded before an enthusiastic crowd on homecoming night.

Many students spent a lot of time and hard work to produce their class float. They were busy day and night, in various locations, working toward completion. Each class worked with the hope of winning the float competition.

Competition, however, was not without its problems. After two weeks of hard work, the students came to school to learn that all of their floats had been vandalized the night before.

This was very discouraging to many devoted students, who had spent all their spare time with their float. Nevertheless, the Crims didn't give up. The floats were moved to the upper field on campus, where students worked twice as hard on repairs and completion to have their floats ready.

For the Sophomore Class of '82, their efforts paid off when their float sailed on to victory as the winning entry in float competition.

Two Come From Abroad

Yuma High has two new foreign exchange students this year that are sponsored by World Experience. They are Paulo Cavalcanti and Kirsten Larsen.

Paulo is from the country of Brazil where he enjoys playing soccer. While Paulo was in Yuma he was active in varsity football and is a member of student council. Paulo stays at the home of Eric Holmes.

Kirsten is from the country of Denmark where she enjoys dancing and swimming.

Kirsten took awhile to get used to the heat because she says that it only gets around 70 degrees in the day. Kirsten likes drive-ins because she says that it's lots of fun to see people outside in cars watching movies. She went to her first one while she was in Yuma. Kirsten is also a member of student council and stays at the home of Shirley Moffery.

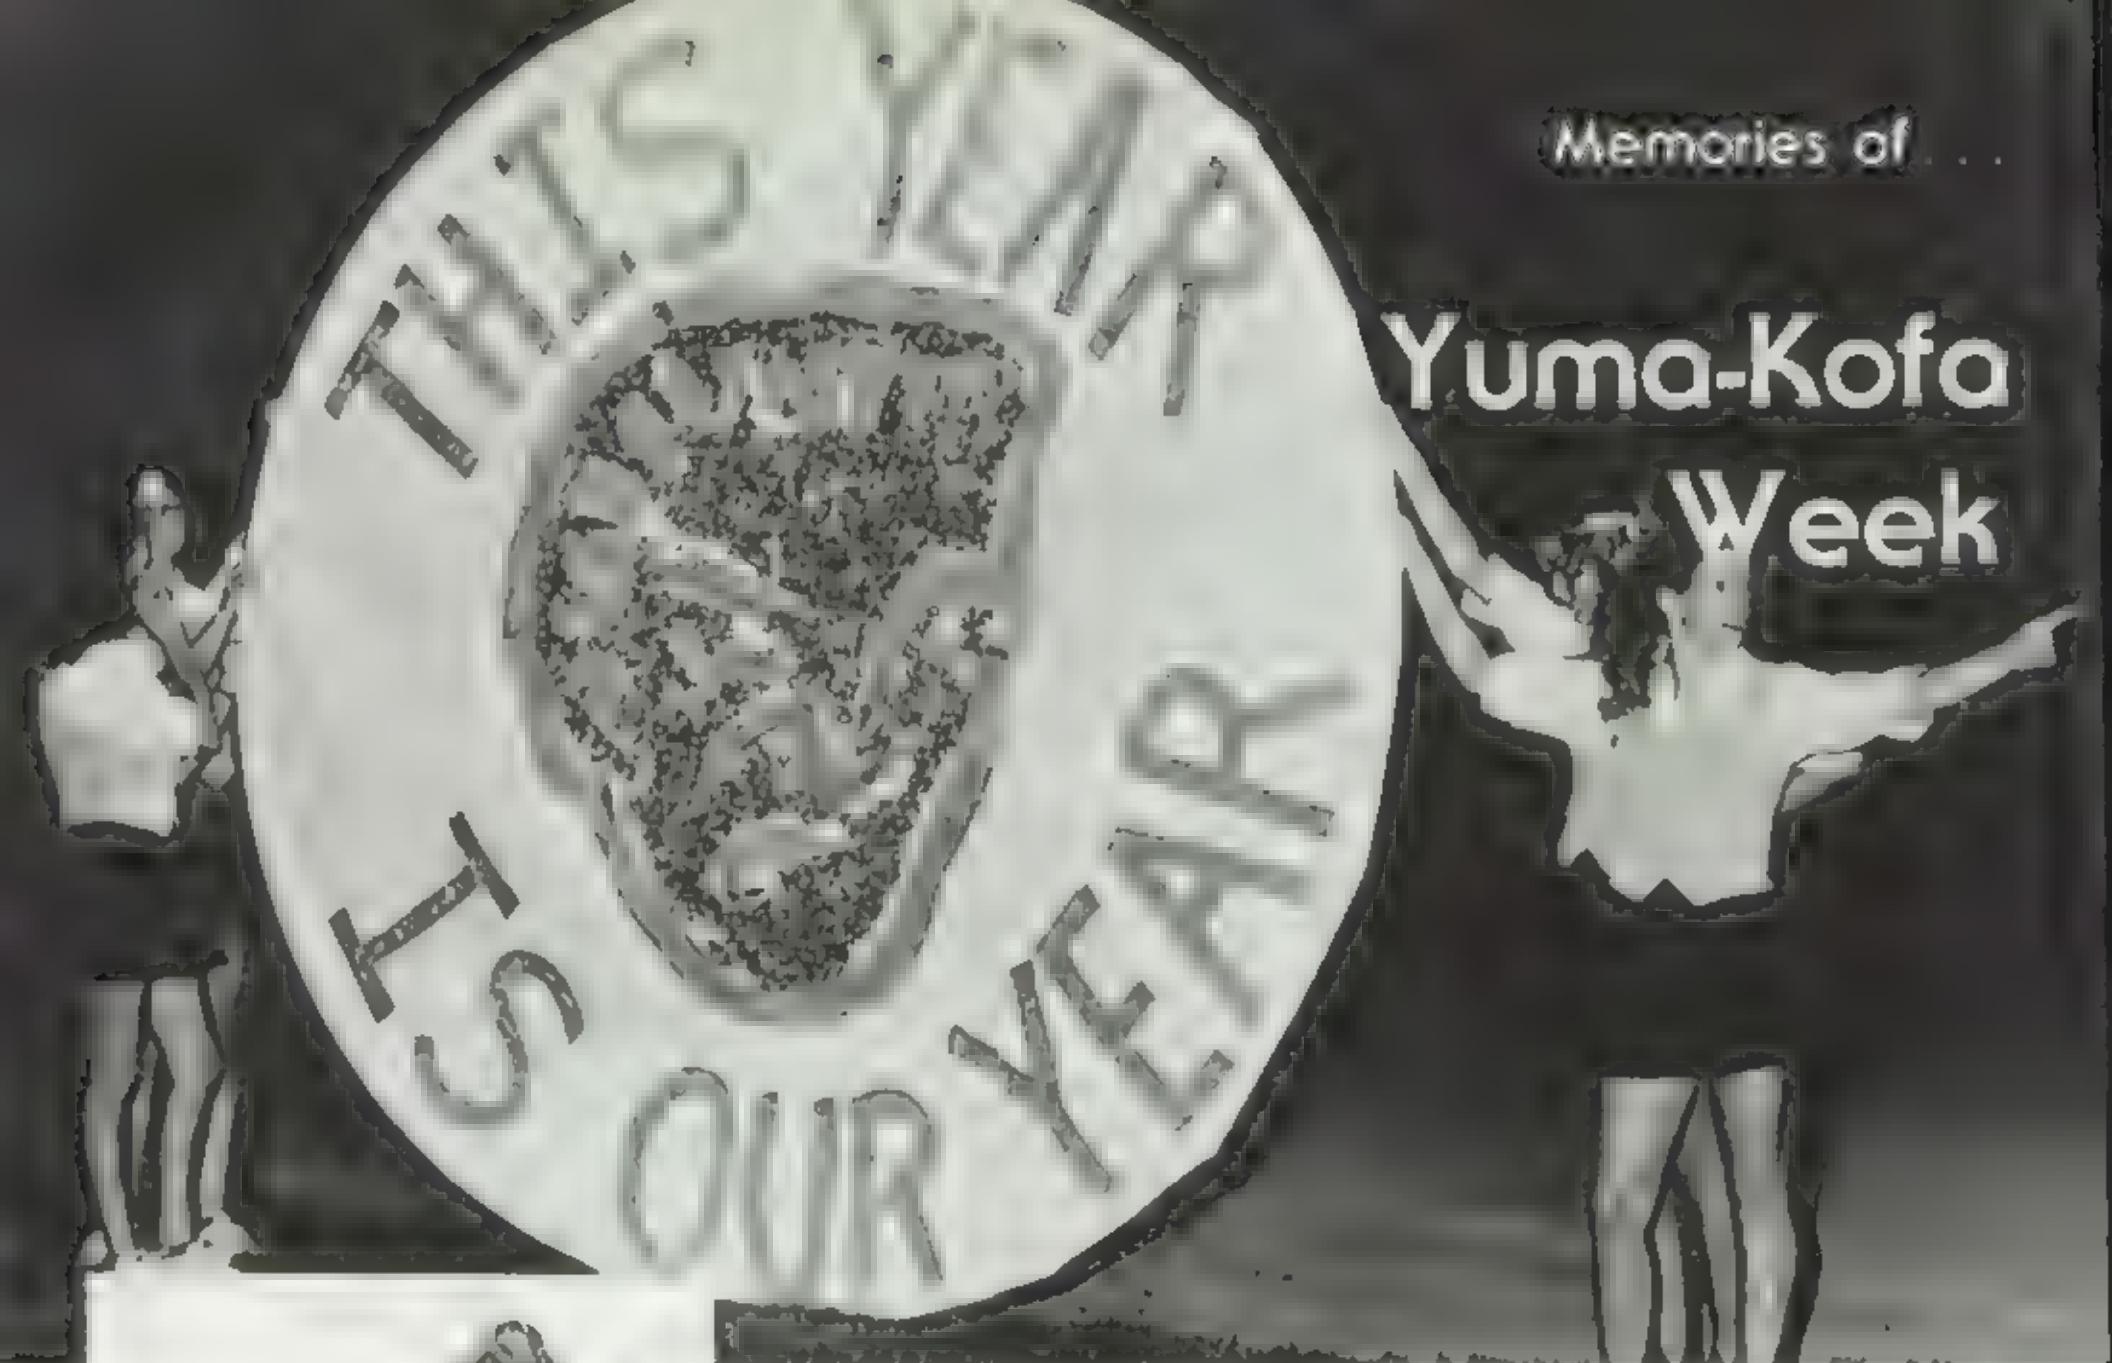

UPPER LEFT: Paulo Cavalcanti is from Brazil. In which their native tongue is Portuguese. BELOW is Kirsten Larsen, who is from the country of Denmark, and their language is Dutch.

After 9 Years We Finally Win

For the Varsity football team it was a year that had great ends. But most would prefer to remember the first end and forget the middle.

It was the first game of the season and for the first time in nine years it looked as though Yuma could win. They were under the direction of first-year head coach Gary Ventura, and he had brought this team something new, confidence. For the first time they believed in themselves.

And it payed off. They walked off the field 20-6 winners. They had done what no other Yuma team of the '70s had done. And it was, as any of them will tell you, a total team effort. Everyone played a part.

But the middle would like to have been forgotten. They couldn't find the magic they had had against Kofa. They lost the next eight games in a row by mostly blow-out scores. Out of the whole season, they never won a game at home. They finished off the year with a 36-10 win over Arcadia. They finished out the "79" campaign with a 1-6 conference record and 2-8 overall.

LEFT: Total Joy. That best describes this picture of Ray Trevino. He had just hit Ernie Vasquez for a touchdown pass that blew open an otherwise close game. Plays like that gave Yuma their victory.

TOP: This was the play that changed the total complexion of the game. Kick returner Eddie Simpson (81) breaks into the clear as he returns an ensuing Kofa TD kickoff for a Yuma touchdown. The return was 84 yards in total. Following to pick up any Kofa defenders is Rob Nickerson (75).

ABOVE: This said it all. It was their year for the city crown. Ted Baker (71) leads the team through the cheerleaders' hoop. The cheerleaders are Tracy Nance, Kelly Schlerf, and Debbie Mercer.

TOP: Almost but no prize. Quarterback Roy Trevino tries to punch the ball over the goal line against Saguaro. Trevino came up short as did the whole team. They lost this game 48-6. Flying out on the block is Rob Nickerson (75). ABOVE: A speedy Sabercat speeds toward the end zone for another would-be Saguaro touch down. Luckily though, speedster Mark Cole caught him before he got six points. Also helping in the chase is Kevin Kehl (44), Trovis Plymale (76), Rob Nickerson (75) and Ted Baker (71).

Jayvees Prepare For Next Year

The Yuma High Jayvee football team won three games this year, and they had a great attitude in their games in spite of their losses. Their record was 3-5.

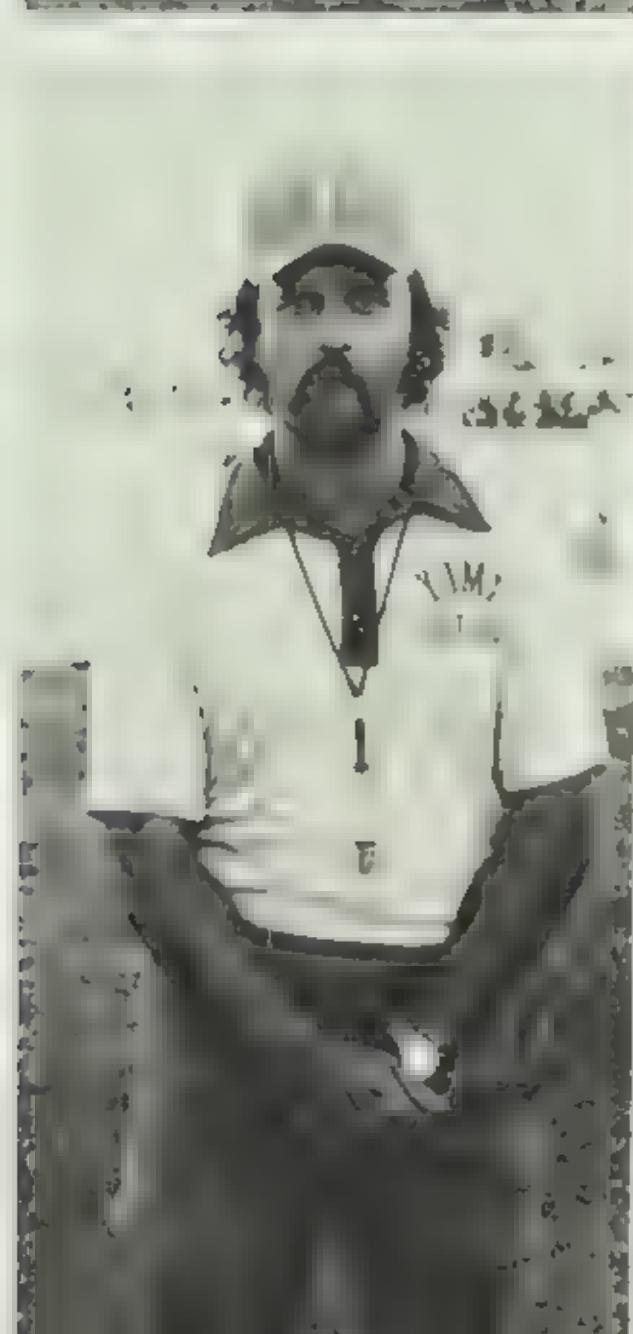

Yuma did have a good season with regard to the players. Coach

Needham commented by saying, "They did an excellent job this season."

Yuma's Terry Shaw was their return specialist with a 50-yard return against El Centro.

Joey McMorris was their quarterback. In their first game he was brought up to Varsity. He fueled the Crims to their first victory over El Centro with his potent running and precise passing attack.

Frosh Have Losing Year But Show Bright Spots

The Frosh Football team finished the season with a record 2-4-1 this year.

Their only two wins came against the San Pasqual Warriors and the Collexico Bulldogs. The Crims had some bright spots this year with their running backs Tim Timlick and Robert McFadden. Timlich led the team in rushing this year.

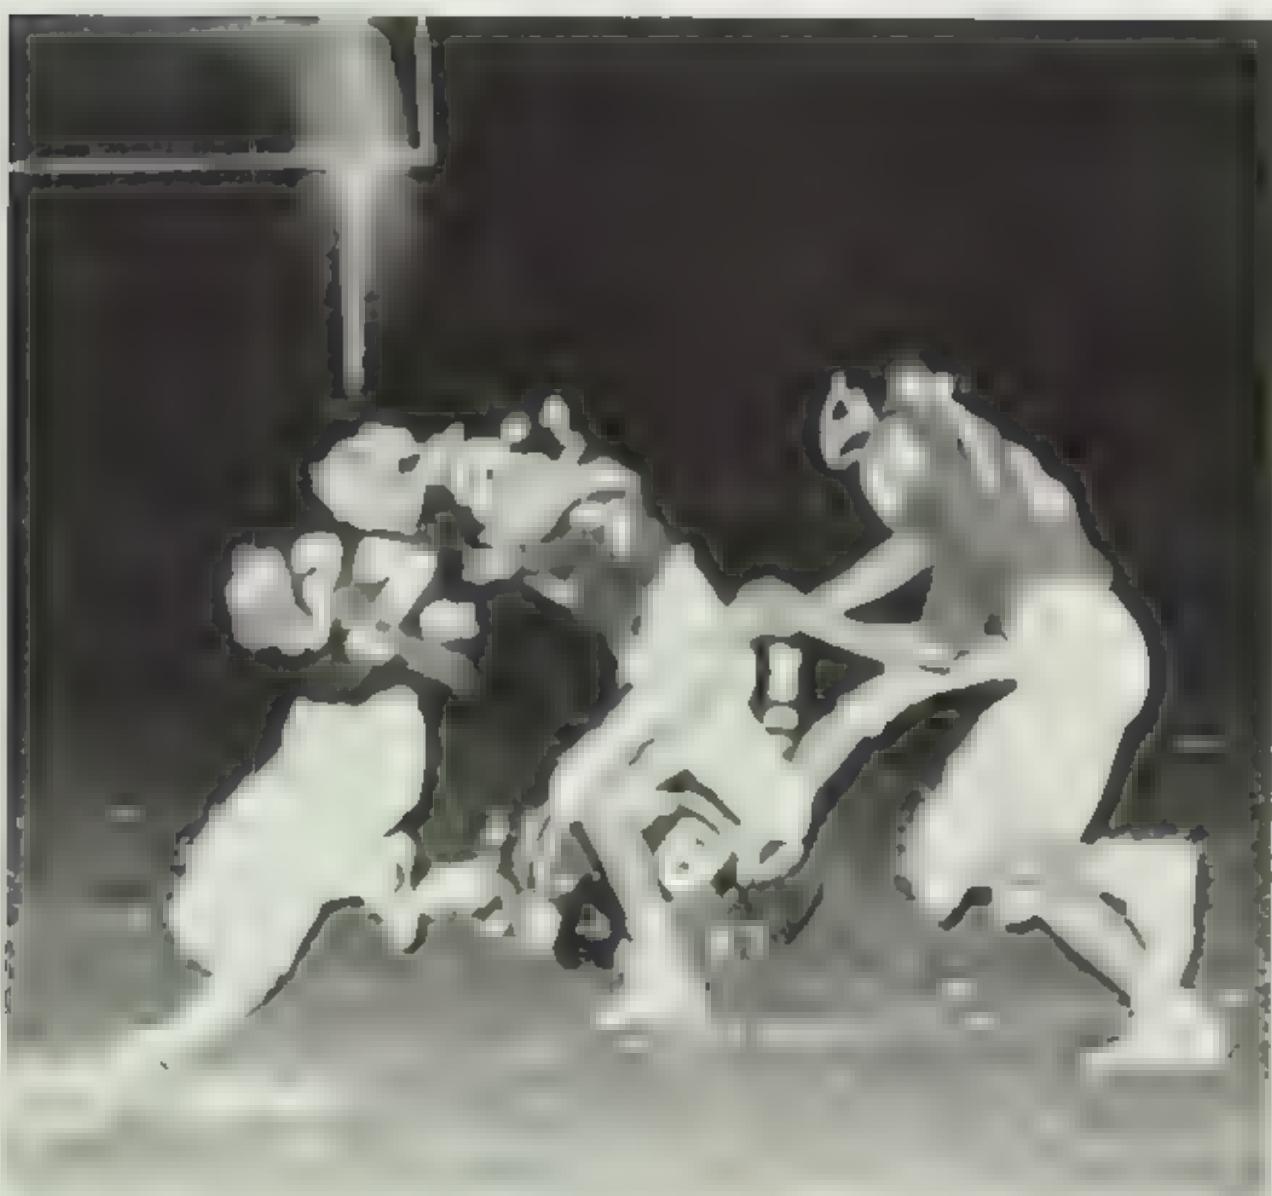

Coach Greenough seemed to indicate that last year was a better season, saying, "We didn't have a terrific season, but it was an experience to remember."

Their losses came against Kofa whom they lost to twice along with Brawley and the Antelope Rams. Their tie came against El Centro.

Varsity Spikers Make Playoffs

The Yuma High varsity volleyball team made it to the playoffs for the third year in a row. The Criminals lost, however, to our cross town rivals, the Kofa Kings, in the first round of the Central Division playoffs. The match was held at the Yuma gym. Coach Bruno said she was disappointed about the playoffs but commented on the rest of the season saying, "We had a very good season, that surprised the other teams in our league, and the reason we got there was by playing team ball the whole season, which we're proud of."

Tankers Have 7-0 Season

With a regular season of (7-0), the girls' swim team have made themselves a statewide threat.

On October 11th and 12th the girls traveled to Phoenix for state competition. They came home having placed 8th in the state.

Coach Jerry Seaquist was very pleased with their season.

"We had the best season Yuma High has ever seen. The team has had a lot of fun together," said Kari Kelsey and Dee Dee Lackey, team members. Kelsey went on to say, "I'm very proud to be a part of Yuma High swim team." Paula Pollard said, "Everybody had a lot of confidence and we were very spirited." With no doubt Yuma High has made themselves a recognizable team.

Due to the resetting of district boundaries Yuma has gained some very fine swimmers from Kofa, who undoubtedly have helped our Yuma High team.

Cross Country Travels

Traveling to Divisionals, the boys' cross-country team finished twelfth there. They held a perfect record against the Central Division teams and finished top in a triangular competition against Kofa. Kris Hawk Norton placed first, but Yuma still fell to the Kofa Kings in a dual meet.

Criminal Hoopsters Battle Teams Height

This year's varsity basketball team cannot be accused of one thing, not trying. Though they had a disappointing year, 6-15, Coach McLendon felt that the team never gave less than a 100% effort.

The team started off the season slowly; it took them three games to get their first win. They still did better than many people thought they would.

One of the biggest disappointments of the season was the fact that they lost two games to cross-town rival Kofa Kings to relinquish the city crown for the first time in 9 years. Although the Kings finished very high in their division, the Crims lost the two games by a combined margin of only 12 points. Many fans and other coaches had predicted a loss by twice that many points in just the first game alone.

The team also had many highs. One was they went to the Parker Christmas Tourney as defending champions and were not picked to do much better than last. But they were the team that never said die. They easily defeated their first opponent and took their second seated team into overtime before defeating them by just two points. In the championship game they fell victim to a high-rated and all-senior squad from Blythe-Palo Verde. They were defeated but they had won a personal match by taking home a runner-up trophy and having one person, Jeff Mangis, selected to the all tourney team.

Next year's team should be another one like this year's. Very small with a certain amount of quickness. But they will have one more big asset, experience.

This year's team, left to right, senior guard Ernie Vasquez, junior guard Tony Flores, senior swingman Jeff Mangis, junior swingman Mike Williams, sophomore forward Brian Brockert, senior center Roy Mendoza, senior forward David White, junior guard Ronny Ozuna, sophomore guard Terry Shaw, and junior guard Roy Alvarado. In front of the team is 19-year-head coach Mr. Bob McLendon and team manager Eddie Quintero.

TOP: Roy Alvarado (11) plays the tough defense on Stu Levinsky of Chaparral before the Firebirds have a chance to beat the Crims down the floor. Hustling back for Yuma is Mark Cole. ABOVE RIGHT: Going up for two points against the Kofa Kings is Number 30 David White. David was one of the 'big' men this year with a soft shooting touch. ABOVE FAR RIGHT: Going up for a shot amongst the trees is number 24 Ronnie Ozuna. Ronnie was the point guard for the team this year and did most of the ball handling. ABOVE: Protecting the ball while trying to make the pass is Don Lackey. Don was a Junior and will be back next year to lead the team. RIGHT Putting up an inside shot is rookie Brian Brockert. FAR RIGHT: The teams other rookie was number 20 Terry Shaw. Terry is an excellent jumper and a great competitor. BOTTOM RIGHT: Trailing on easy lay-up is Mike Williams (22). Mike shows great hustle while on the basketball floor.

J.V. '79-'80, 'Twas A Rough Year

Yuma High School Junior Varsity basketball team had a rough road ahead of them this year.

In their first half of the season they didn't win a game, especially to those tough powerhouse Phoenix teams.

A disappointed Coach Alka said, "This was an experience that I won't soon forget, but next year they will be ready to beat those Phoenix teams."

Some bright spots on this year's team were Jeff Byrd with his sharp shooting ability, Tony Vasquez's being able to penetrate the lane and dishing it off for an assist, Danny Armstrong with his strong rebounding power and Steve Stallworth who started to come into his own toward the end of the season.

Freshman A's Showing Promise

This year our Freshman "A" team provided us with some exciting and thrilling games.

This year the 'A' team was headed by Mr. Cliff Bryan, who is also a physical education teacher. led the Fresh team to another successful season and hopes he can bring many more to the Freshman level.

The young Crims schedule showed them playing mostly California teams and a few in Arizona.

B's Showing Potential

The Freshman "B" basketball team is headed by John Goos who coached the "A" team last year.

Just because you're on the B team, that doesn't mean you don't have a chance to play Varsity ball. Coach Goos said.

He also said that it was a lot of fun and the guys are great to be around.

Five Wrestle Their Way To State

This year five Yuma High Marmen wrestled their way to state competition. Larry Sattley (107), Danny Huber (112), Marty Robles (119), Mike Felix (126), and Fernando Delgado (145) made it through divisional meets to qualify for State, where Robles and Felix finished with third place victories.

Yuma Wrestlers ended this year's season with a 6-6 Dual Meet record. They competed in the Peoria Tournament and also in the El Centro Tournament where they placed third overall.

J.V. And Frosh Get Together

This year J.V. and Frosh were put together to make one wrestling team. Marty Dillon was the new coach for the J.V./Frosh wrestling team. Mr. Dillon commented that his first year as coach was most enjoyable. Most of the J.V./Frosh team consisted of freshmen, seven to be exact. There were also two sophomores and two juniors. Mr. Dillon also expressed his enjoyment of their winning season, 7-5, although they suffered a tough loss to Kofa's J.V. team, losing in the last two matches of the night.

Boys Working Hard To Rebuild

First year tennis coach Steven Kile stated that the team is in what you could call a rebuilding year. Coach Kile also stated some of the younger players who don't have the experience of the older ones are working hard every day at practice. # Girls' Basketball Team Continues To Improve

These girls are the 1980 girls' varsity basketball team. Hope Montalvo, Bernie Lopez, Kimber DeVerse, Denise Nelson, Susan Six, Carol Morris, Tracy Batura, Beth Shadie, Yolanda Biebrich, Carmen Hernandez, Denise Alvarado, and Marlene Beltran. Sitting in front of them is coach Magin who made a promise to his girls to shave his beard after their first win.

Two years ago, when a girls' basketball team was formed at Yuma High, they had a very dismal season, winning only one game all year. And then last year they began to come around and improve by winning four games. This year they have held true to their past mold and have improved more than ever over the past two. With coach Magin directing the helm and Ms. Bruno and Eddie Contreras giving help on their own time, the girls have learned a lot and have become a force in Criminal land.

Over the past three years they have become very coordinated and agile at the game, especially the younger people that were there when the program was started. They have learned many of the games basic fundamentals and are expected to just keep excelling at their game.

LEFT Freshman Beth Shadle is frozen in the middle of one of her own special layups. Beth was one of the only freshmen to make the team this year. She was a big factor to the team, starting most of the games and putting in her share. Maybe she had her brother Steve, a former Yuma High standout, show her some pointers. ABOVE Two of the jayvees specialties work on a pregame drill in a practice session. Laying the ball off of the glass is Josephine Pemberton while team-mate Tracy Mottox watches and waits in case it fails to fall in the hoop. The JV's are most of the younger girls since there is no freshman team.

Batsmen Swing Through Season

This year's Yuma High baseball team consisting of 15 members on this year's squad hoped to go to the divisional playoffs again this year.

Coach Steen has two new coaches this year and they are Coach Dillon and Coach Nordell who work with the pitchers.

The Crims showed the town their ability in their annual Blue/White scrimmage with the Blues winning 3-2

Coach Steen said, "I am really proud of the boys, but we still have a long way to go."

This year's Yuma High Jayvee team proves to have lots of talent with eight juniors on the team.

This team should really provided a winning season for this year's new

Jayvee coach who is Coach Magdaleno

Freshmen Swing A Wicked Bat

This years freshman baseball team was another team to watch this year. They were the defending Imperial Valley champs and had a main goal to go and defend that championship successfully.

Coach Ron Wood felt that they are as talented kids as any other team he's ever coached before in the past and thought they were even closer as a team than any other team he's had.

He affectionately called them bunch of hoodlums for the way that they played in the tradition of Yuma High aggressive style. They were quick on the bases and had a lot of baseball sense on the field. But most of all they were demons at the plate tearing up most opposing pitchers.

Yes, you dedicated Yuma High fans, this could very well of been the first year for something special. Perhaps the championship team of 1984.

This athletic looking bunch of kids are the members of the freshman baseball team of 1980. They are Francisco Macias, Oggie Gonzales, Alan Lewis, Lenny Ellis, Kevin Wellard, Terry McConn and Matt Phillips. Middle row:

LEFT: The next Reggie Jackson, actually its Scott Covey, shows his excellent batting form. Scott was a team leader in batting and helped the team much throughout the year. His older brother, Mike, plays on the varsity level

These two men were the people that led the team in everything. They are the coaches. On the left is Mr. Greenough and to his right is Mr. Wood. They are the men that pep up the team and make them as they are.

Varsity Softball Hangs Tough

The Yuma girls in the last game of the season defeated the Scottsdale Saguaro Sabercats in a make up game played in Scottsdale. The loss eliminated Saguaro from the playoffs. Although Yuma did not make the playoffs, they finished out the season with a 5-7 (an A-League Central Division record) and a 7-8 overall record. The team was coached by Rick Kisselberg.

Gymnastics People Are Flipping

Gymnastics is a sport that people have been flipping over for centuries. This year's gymnastics team was something to flip over. This year, our gymnastic team showed a lot of enthusiasm and a lot of improvement. The talent it takes to become a gymnast is not easy to come by. It takes a lot of hard work, determination, practice, and will power. This year, the girls showed that they had a lot of all four.

Mrs. Pott and Mrs. Sherman were the coaches this year. They helped the girls develop more confidence in their gymnastic qualities.

This year, the gymnastics team had many meets with various schools in and outside of Yuma.

This year Pep Club has a new start. Last year the club was dropped because of lack of participation. Pep Club cheers and supports all teams such as volleyball, football, wrestling, and softball. The club helped Booster Club raise money and in return, Booster Club helped them. They also helped the cheerleaders make posters. Pep Club had meetings every Monday. The sponsor this year for Pep Club was Mrs. McBride. Officers for this year were Leslie McAdams, president; Ginger Martin, vice president; Missy Stocking, secretary; Deldre Schuman, treasurer; Daniele Smith, publicity manager.

Cheerleaders Win Awards

This summer the Yuma High Varsity Cheerleaders had no sponsor when they attended a summer camp in Flagstaff, Arizona. They were later sponsored by Mrs. Susie Tyndall and Mrs. Kathy Pott. They went ahead and worked together and got along well enough to bring back two Spirit Sticks and Superior ribbons. Their main purpose is to promote school spirit and support our teams. Pep Rallies are held to raise up this spirit and really make the team players want to win. Varsity Squad has become so involved in supporting our teams that they have gone on out of town trips. The Squad was headed by Tracey Nance.

Songleaders Tell Feelings

"Songleading was a lot of hard work, but it taught me a lot and payed off in the end", said Shera Grosskreutz.

"It wasn't easy, but it was SPLENDID!" Sally Alspachs attitude summed up the feelings of the group.

"It was a lot of fun, but in some points it could've been better," Lydia Ologue said, not saying what needed improving.

"I loved it! Everyone on the squad was so different, yet they were all super in their own way," exclaimed Lydia Luna.

"Songleading to me was a special year, with lots of hard work, but even more GOOD TIMES!" said Lisa Engler.

"I love it! Even though it's lots of hard work, I wouldn't give it up for anything!" said Marsha Ponce.

"I think that it was a great year and we accomplished so much from each other, and I really hate to see it all end," said Sheryl Reilly.

"Looking back on the year, I feel that Songleading was a very special part of high school. Through victories and defeats, our friendship held us together," exclaimed Theresa Daniel.

"Songleading has been a good experience for me. It has taught me a lot about dealing with people and different situations," said Christye

Oden.

"I thought it was fun and a good experience. I think I got a lot out of it. Songleading was also a lot of hard work and practice," said Lucy Chavez.

Seniors Dominate In Powder Puff

This year in the annual junior and senior Powder Puff action the Seniors beat the Juniors 14-0.

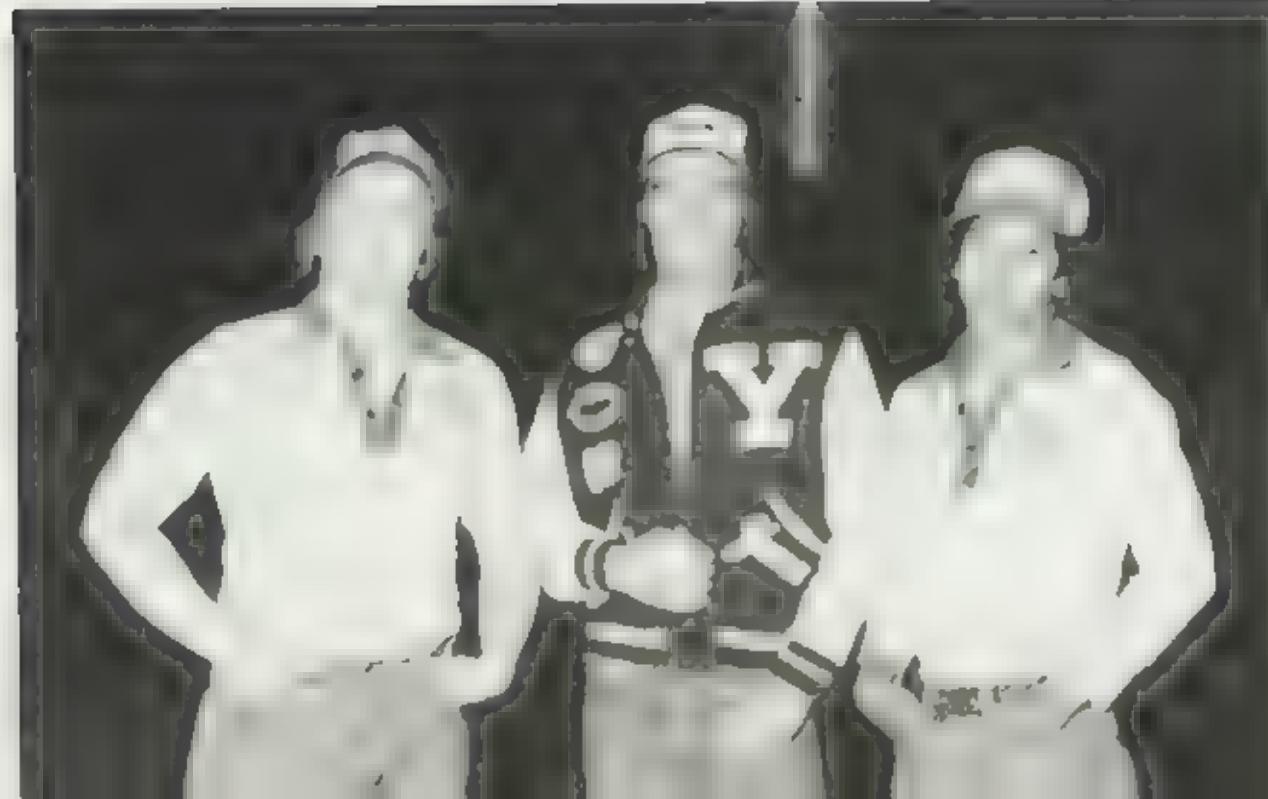

The first half belonged totally to the seniors behind the fine running of Bobbie Lou Sims, Jackie McFadden and Linda Crowe, plus the superb quarterbacking by Durana Bowman.

Senior coach Ray Trevino said, "The girls played excellent, but I feel we should have beaten them worse."

The Juniors came back in the second half, allowing the Seniors only three first downs. Defensive coordinator Tony Cabrera did an excellent job with the defense. Carmen Hernandez did an outstanding job leading the team with 15 unassisted tackles.

Student Council Works Together

Student Council worked closely together this year to produce the Homecoming events, Leadership Workshop, and the Nominating Convention, along with many pep rallies and other programs. Not only is Council an organization to work on student activities but also one to help its members learn to grow together. It took a lot of planning, work, and organization to produce such activities, and through this working together, many different views and opinions came out. Council members learned to recognize these different views and accept them without judging. There were many disagreements and upsetting moments in the planning of a program, but after a successful production, they felt that all the hardships were worth it.

Student body officers are as follows: President, Maddy Martin; Vice Pres., Armand Angulo; Com. Sec., Cindy Kramer; Rec. Sec., Lorrie Pratt; Treas., Lisa Boca; Soc. Mgr., Laura Castro; Pub. Mgr., Kurt Kubishke; School Board Rep., Beth Taylor; Class officers are: Sr. Pres., Merci Marquez; Sr. Rep., Carmen Montoya; Jr. Pres., Penny Laird; Jr. Rep., Marsha Ponce; Soph. # El Saguaro Changes Style

This year El Saguaro changed its style with a new advisor. Mrs. Sylvie Allen took over the job from Mr. Neil Johnson, past advisor. She brought in a different format to work with Donna Snow, editor-in-chief; the yearbook staff (most of whom were first-year students) and the theme "Faint Indentations" to produce El Saguaro 1980. The theme came from Co-ed magazine, brought to class by Norma Olguin.

One word which was frequently used in yearbook class was "work". This year's staff knew the meaning of that word well, for they spent many long, hard, sometimes confusing, hours working toward meeting their publication deadlines, working sometimes at night and on weekends.

The Class That Knows What's Happenin', Thermo

"This year I want to teach you people more about newspaper production." This statement started off the year for those 15-20 people who registered for Thermometer, the school newspaper. It was made by a class advisor, Mr. Neil Johnson.

In the past years Mr. Johnson was advisor to both the newspaper and the year book. This went along with three or four photography classes he taught. This year however, he decided not to work on the yearbook and devote all of his publication time to the newspaper. As he put it "I have become dedicated to one publication, and I think my students should do the same. This may require some extra work."

Extra work is what they did too. The staff, which was smaller than past years tried to produce a four page paper every other week. This included covering simple school stories to the large feature articles. Then they all had to be typed and sent to the printer's to be set.

The next step involved the actual making of the page. Here the editors took the stories that had been set and "posted" them on the page. These bits of "copy" were pre-waxed on the back so that is how they stuck to the paper.

Choralairs Seem Like Family

This year's Choralairs, under the new direction of Mr. Bill Brennan, not only performed together, but they also enjoyed a very close-knit family type atmosphere.

The group practiced through the school year approximately one hour five days a week. It took them about four hours to put a whole song, including dance and vocal, together.

Among other things, the group's officers were chosen by their involvement and enthusiasm in the group.

They were President Tim Smith; Vice President Anita Dees; Secretary Mary Lou Fulton; Treasurer Barbara Brandt; and Public Relations: David Figueroa and Scott Thomas.

At the end of each school year, the Choralairs pick new members, who are judged on singing, dancing, and personality.

Besides performing at concerts, the Choralairs also performed for other activities around the school.

Mr. Bill Brennan became the sponsor for the singing group in November.

Mr. Mac Makes 'Em Sing

"People don't think we have to work all that much, but we really do," said a member of Madrigals who expressed a desire not to be named. "There is a lot of work to singing. We can't just open our mouths and hope we're on key. We have to know we're on key even before we start. We have to all sing together or we don't sound like a group. If we don't stick together we sound like a bunch of 'off-key' solos. We have to know the music and know it well before any performance."

Madrigals is a singing group made up of freshman, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Mr. Gilbert McPherson, better known as Mr. Mac, directs the group.

"Mr. McPherson really helps us a lot," said another member who also wished not to be named. "He says we are one of his favorite classes. I think he helps us all to do our best in class and during performances."

Throughout the year, Madrigals have done such things as the Christmas Concert and performing at various Junior High Schools in Yuma.

Concert Goes Symphonic

An improvement in quality resulted in a name change for last year's concert choir. This year the name was changed to Symphonic Choir because the group got more advanced. Earlier, Concert Choir was just a choir to get people used to singing.

The choir met every school day during sixth period for practice. Once their performances were perfected, they appeared at such places as Desert Manor Convalescent Home and at Southgate Mall. In addition, they appeared on television and on radio.

A new teacher, Mr. Gilbert McPherson, directed the choir this year.

"Band Is Dynamite"

This year's Stage Band proved the saying about dynamite coming in small packages.

Although Stage Band is not as large as Varsity Band, their quality in sound proved to be just as superb.

Stage Band is a class that, like most musical groups, a student must try out for. It deals mostly with learning new jazz songs.

This year the stage band sponsored a concert that was performed by the California State Northridge Band. They made the members of the band feel welcome by taking them into their homes. Stage Band also made a performance in the Play Pageant at the Yuma County Fair in April.

"Stage Band is a lot of fun if you are into music, especially jazz," commented a member who wished to remain anonymous. "Ms. DeCesare is a really good director."

This year was Ms. DeCesare's second year in directing band at Yuma High School.

Band Requires Lots Of Skill

Varsity Band requires a lot of skill. To become involved in it, a student must try out. If he is good, he may be chosen by the director.

Varsity Band helps promote spirit by performing at football and basketball games. They also traveled to various places for performances. The band earned its money to do this by having bake sales, raffles, and a car wash.

This year's members were Karen Abernethy, Pat Ahuero, Eric Allen, Jackie Allen, Elizabeth Angulo, George Apostol, Alan Arellano, Pat Blair, Barb Brondt, Darrin Brinkley, Lisa Buman, Betty Chavoya, Chris Currie, Matt Currie, Bill Danell, Kimber DeVerse, Anna Durazo, Chip Durhom, Steve Esparza, Peggy

ROTC Marches For The Future

R.O.T.C. met every morning to raise the flag at 7:00 a.m., then they went over to Kofa for the class. They learned a great deal about the army, and how it can help you in your life after you finish high school. They marched to get ready for the inspection from the General, and they also patrolled at games and other school activities.

Chicanos Unite With New Club

This year Yuma High added a new club to our campus, "La Gente De Mecha." It is a Chicano club meaning Latin Americans going for education, national pride, togetherness, and equality. The club held a "Dia De La Raza" here, which took place at the stone bleachers. It really helped make this club better known to the students. They had a low rider exhibi-bition and tortilla making examples. The club also had a bake sale at the Southgate Mall, which had a tremendous turn out.

AIASA- New Kid In Town

"Compared to VICA, the American Industrial Arts Student Association is a club for the student that is interested in shop classes more for fun than a vocation," was sponsor Mr. McGregor's first comment.

AIASA is a club that was started just around the middle of this year and was started by Mr. McGregor. Since it is just a new club they are looking for members. Anybody that might be interested in the club should get in contact with Mr. McGregor.

VICA Auctions Club Project

Yuma High's Vocational Industrial Club of America has tried to make money by constructing a roll-top desk and then auctioning it off. It was a total club participation project.

Another one of their main goals was to get more females to participate in the club.

"It is a club that I feel anybody can benefit from that is interested in shops," stated sponsor Mr. McGregor.

TOP: These are the active members of the newly formed AIASA club. They are Jeanette Shephard, Richard Durazo, Billy Arviso, Mario Varela, Yvonne Shephard, Sonie Burnie, Tony Cabrera, Keith James, and Mr. McGregor, sponsor.

F.H.A. Changing For The Better

F.H.A. used to stand for Future Homemakers of America but now all that has changed, it is now called Future Hope Of America. This is a club for people who are interested in all fields of home economics. Their activities included attending a district leadership conference, attending a state-wide convention and preparing for the Yuma County Fair. Only the members with the most points attended the state-wide convention.

Anything Goes In Health Careers

"Health Careers helps prepare us for anything in the medicine field which we are interested in," said Benita Rico.

This club does just that. Its main goal is to get students interested in medicine and to set them in the right direction. These students' interests range from a surgical registered nurse (R.N.) to a dental assistant. There are many careers in which medicine is involved and these people show their interests in a few of them.

Science Club Prepares Future

Science Club's goal is to help the students maintain a constant interest and to show them what the science field has to offer. The club members helped raise money by selling raffle tickets to win an electronic football game.

They had a trip for selected members to the Kitt Peak observatory and planetarium in Tucson, Arizona.

Folkloricos Perform In Tucson

The Community Center in Tucson, Arizona was the site for a performance by Yuma High's Folkloric Dancers. Folkloric Dancers is a club whose main purpose is to promote the Hispanic culture through their variety of dances. The group performed at the Chilton here in Yuma. They also danced for Oscar Silva's benefit, a fund raising event. This year's officers were President Lilly Guzman, Vice-president Esteban Dominguez, Secretary Zito Estrada, and Treasurer Marcia Meza.

FBLA Is Going Strong

FBLA, also called the Future Business Leaders of America, is sponsored by two women this year. They are Mrs. Stella Sorensen and Mrs. Lucy Ponce.

This club is for all persons that plan to make a career in the business field

Each year the club raffles off tickets for prizes to raise enough money to go to their state convention.

They also provide Thanksgiving baskets to the needy during that special time of the month.

Feast Club Gets The Munchies

All through the year, Feast Club both senior and junior classes, made many good things to munch on. At the same time, they were also learning many skills from following recipe instructions to using thermometers while cooking. Many of the students have put their skills to use while working at local restaurants after school. The students also get credit for the work.

To Kansas City

F.F.A. Members Travel

A trip to Kansas City was the highlight of the year for seven members of Future Farmers of America. Five officers and two members competed in leadership activities there.

"This is one of the most exciting of the activities that goes on during the year," said Mr. Dernal, an advisor to the chapter. "The leadership training, educational activities, and personal growth that the students get is really top notch," he said.

In Yuma, however, this year's initiation was held in conjunction with an open house for all parents and students on parents' night. Initiation is held to raise the second-year members to a higher degree.

The Yuma County Fair has always been one of the opportunities students have to display "fruits of labor" and to compete for top production and showmanship awards.

Mr. Dernal is the junior chapter advisor and Mr. Kimbraugh is the senior chapter advisor.

Thespians Put It All Together

Thespians, a club for any drama students who have attained ten points by participating in plays, puts it all together. They produced their plays. They directed them. They did all the casting for their plays. Some of the plays were "Judgement Morning," "The Lottery," "The Loveliest Afternoon of the Year," and "Sorry, Wrong Number." These plays took place in the Yuma High playbox theatre during mid February. This year's officers were Kathy Byrnes, president; Stacey Johnston, vice-president; Susan Six, secretary; and Brad Jennings, treasurer. Mr. Bill Brennan was this year's sponsor.

"Our Spirit Is Heavy"

"Our spirit is heavy" is something that members of Anchor Club have been quoted to say. It means that Anchor Club has strong spirit, which it expressed this year.

Anchor Club is a service organization which is a branch off of Pilot Club. Yuma and Kofa High Schools are the only two Anchor Clubs in this Pilot Club district.

To get involved in Anchor Club, a student must have a B average. She must apply for an interview. After she is interviewed, members who attended the interview vote by secret ballot. Those who are voted in are taken to breakfast very early in the

Throughout the year, Anchor Club performed services such as having a Christmas party for the Girls' Club of Yuma, making 200 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for the Parks and Recreation Department, and having a Valentines party for the Rainbow Center.

Anchor Club earned its money by slave sales and selling carnations.

Their float placed first in club competition during Homecoming. They also put on a sock hop in April.

N.H.S.: We Make Good Grades

"National Honor Society is a good club to be involved with," stated Cindy Kramer. "We get a lot of work done."

National Honor Society is not an easy club to get into. To be involved in N.H.S., a student must:

- have a good character
- maintain a 3.5 grade average or better
- show leadership
- be willing to put forth service
- be a sophomore, junior, or senior

The Yuma High School faculty votes on the membership of N.H.S. If a student does not maintain any of the five qualifications listed, he may be expelled from the group.

Services that the National Honor Society performed are things like forming group committees, making posters, and tutoring. A student must put forth at least ten hours of service.

Officers for this year were Ann Wilkey, president; Gowen Jessen, vice president; Beth Taylor, treasurer; Donna Readhead, secretary; and Mr. Burton and Mrs. Mitchell were the sponsors.

S.N.H.S. Says 'Hola' To You

"Hola" is a salute in Spanish meaning "hello". Just about any member of Spanish National Honor Society could tell you that.

"S.N.H.S. is a lot of fun. We also learn a lot about Spanish History," expressed Valan Cain, president of the group. "I'm proud to be in the group."

Spanish National Honor Society is a club designed to help the Spanish Community. Students in this club must maintain a 3.5 grade average or better in Spanish. S.N.H.S. earns money by having bake sales and selling tacos at games.

"I feel this group is important," said another member of S.N.H.S. who wished to remain anonymous. "It has a lot in store for it in future years."

In spring, S.N.H.S. went to San Diego to visit missions and Spanish History sights for one day.

The officers this year were Valan Cain, president; Johnny Martinez, vice president; Leticia Urquiza, secretary; Debbie Munoz, treasurer; and Mr. Rogers was the sponsor.

STAFF- ADMINISTRATION

School Board Is Biggest Boss

These are the Yuma Union High School District board members. They are standing: Mr. Ed Honsberger, Mr. Stephen P. Shadie, Mr. Moody, Sitting: Mrs. Velma Townsend and Mrs. Port Holland. These people are elected to serve the YUHS District and govern the school policies.

Even though most of us blame our troubles and the school's problems on the teachers, administration or the janitors, it's the YHS school board that has the final say-so in the school's policies.

They govern all of the spending of the school's monies and approve the final budget. In most of their meetings, which are open to the public, you can find them discussing anything from the amount of money to be spent on out-of-town athletic trips to how much they should spend on a computer for the math department; or if that computer should be bought or if we should pay for a computer service.

They meet every other Thursday to discuss school business.

These Administrators Keep School Running

These four people are the men that, working together and with all the people under their supervision, keep this school running with as few snags as possible.

They are under the control of the school board. The man in charge of these people is Mr. Gary, the school's principal. His job is to keep the faculty and administration as happy as possible. He is really the school diplomat.

Mr. Walters and Mr. Wilson are the ones that most of the student body hope not to visit too often. They are the disciplinarians. Mr. Wilson is in charge of Student Council and Student Body Activities. Mr. Walters is the athletic director.

The final one is Mr. Blitz, head registrar. He keeps track of enrolled students, and he plans to retire after this year.

Librarians, Secretaries Help Out

Librarians as well as secretaries help students and administrators. Librarians help students with information for term papers, book reports, or finding books for personal enjoyment. Secretaries help students when they have lost or found something to put something in the bulletin or help the administrators.

They Clean 'Em Up

One way or the other, the people who maintain our school try to help improve the campus. The security guards clean up the problems that a few students attempt to create. The maintenance crew works to improve the buildings and school grounds.

You may have noticed the grounds keepers setting out new plants last spring, for instance. (The horticulture class also contributed to the grounds work.) Other maintenance personnel do various repairs or jobs to keep the buildings in proper condition.

Counselors Assist With Plans

Our counselors at Yuma High School assist the students with future education and vocational plans, and also with personal and disciplinary problems which might be affecting their progress at school, home or even at work. They also have a computer which can tell you what requirements you would need for a specific job or career. It lists all the colleges and trade schools available and all this rounded together helps the counselors here help students better.

Mrs. Betty Dunn, secretary for the counseling department, helps the counselors by making and taking down appointments and making sure that they have exactly what they need to help the student body and the school be able to function properly.

In addition to their everyday duties, teachers and counselors attend faculty meetings

Crims Booster Club Supports the teams

To: Karen,

Its been great knowing these past years. Hope we will always stay friends. Oh, I almost forgot. The reason I'm signing on this page is because ~~you're the best friend~~

That's all

Helen Quinten

Another year has gone by leaving faint indentations of the memories we left behind. The experiences shared by all are but hallways full of memories.

The heartaches and pleasures will not be left on a crumbling post. The victories and defeats will go down in history.

The history of the seniors of 1980 has been written. The class officers will remember the victories, the defeats—faint indentations that will travel with them through the coming years as remembrances of their representation of the Senior Class of '80.

Senior class officers for 1980 were Lydia Luna, vice-president; Beth Adams, secretary; Merci Marquez, president; and Yolanda Federico, treasurer. Not pictured is Carmeh Montoya, representative.
